Race Report*

A busy weekend was in store for Sutton Harriers with the North Midlands league on the Saturday followed by the Booth decorator's league on the Sunday.

A small team of talented athletes headed to Corby's West Glebe park on the Saturday. Jake Lacey got the team off to an excellent start by finishing 10th in the under 13 boy's race. Danielle Ceney kept the ball rolling finishing 27th following a strong finish in the under 15 girls race. Bethany Ceney looks like following in her elder Sisters foot steps by finishing a creditable 19th in the U/13 girl's race. Jordan Mitchell shown he wasn't frightened to get out the comfort zone by finishing a gallant 39th in the U/15 boys category. Abbie Wells ran in her 1st North Mids X-country finishing in 17th overall and 5th girl in the under 11's fun run.

In the senior races, Fran Meakin was showing she's about to return to form after a year of injury and illness by taking 18th position in a very strong competitive ladies race.

The men were led home by Dean Cross (48th) closely followed by Paul Whittingham (54th), Nick Luke, showing that he was returning to form, in 79th and backed up by both Mick Davies (154th) and Andy Mitchell (180th). This leaves the veteran men in a very creditable 4th place in the league with 2 fixtures left.

The next fixture is at Mansfields Berry Hill park on the 29th November 2008.
